2. 2.) The college will publicise and promote the TMYS projects to its students so that whoever wants to make a submission can do so. All the submission terms of TMYS will apply as is. Submission does not necessarily translate into publication.

2. 3.) The college will recommend Project Assistants for the year. TMYS will select 1 (ONE) student per project under TMYS Review. The Project Assistants will receive certificates for their work.

2. 4.) The college will bring 3 speakers per project from their network. No repetition of speakers in a year.

2. 5.) The college shall bring 2 (TWO) paid submissions from the students/faculty per project. These submissions will be quality content which will be recommended by the college and published by TMYS Review. No rejection but the submissions will be subject to modification. If the modifications suggested by the editorial team are not received on time, then the contributor might miss out on the opportunity and the submission might be cancelled.

3. 1.) TMYS will offer internship opportunities to students. Direct exposure and hands-on experience will be provided to the students for research and work experience acclaimed internationally to enhance their competence in the job market. Following are the details to begin with:

3. 2.) All students selected as Project Assistants will be trained by TMYS to participate in the projects and fulfil the tasks. They get trained in communication (verbal and social media), network building and writing (both creative and academic). The only requirement is that the students should be sincere and responsible; they should have a favourable attitude to learn and work together in a team.

3. 3.) If the students of the college want to register for the Story Project or Writing Programme (WP), they get 10% discount.

3. 4.) Students of the college who become Project Assistants for TMYS Review and complete the term successfully, can submit for free for any project for 2 years and will get a one-time discount of 25% for one Writing Programme conducted under TMYS, if they opt to enrol for this course.

3. 5.) The college is welcome to nominate students per month (this is optional) for TMYS: Women on the GO (title is tentative) project. We will select upto 4 students per month to collect touching and/or inspiring real life stories of women.

3. 6.) One online workshop for 3 hours will be conducted by TMYS per year in collaboration with the college for their students - on Creative Writing and Critical Thinking with reference to Women's Stories from India.

4.) Both parties agree that prior approval is required before using the other institution's/organisation's name and logo in any kind of publicizing activity.

5. 1.) The MoU will be signed for a period of two years and it will auto-renew for every subsequent two years unless either party wants to amend/discontinue the MOU. Whichever party wants to review or discontinue it, they will have to notify the other party one month in advance before the auto renewal.

5. 2.) This MoU may only be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by both the signatory authorities.

The signatory authorities of the Institution/organisation have executed this Memorandum of Understanding on the date and year last specified below.
