Field of interest and future plans

I am teaching in Rani Birla Girls' College from July 2013. In the same year, Hindi department started new Hindi Honours course. It is very nice and enriching experience as a teacher. My research work also helped me a lot. My PhD work was based on fiction (katha sahitya) of six eminent women writers of Hindi literature. So, I want to work further (Post-Doctorate) with a feminist approach on different arenas of Hindi literature. Certainly, it would be helpful for me in continuous teaching-learning process.

Brief Research Statement

My research work's title is 'San 1970 ke Bad ka Stri Sahitya: Vividh Ayam'. It is based on fiction (katha sahitya) of six women writers: Krishna Sobti, Usha Priyamwada, Mannu Bhandari, Mridula Garg, Maitreyi Pushpa and Prabha Khetan. With a feminist view my work describes about women's movement, their plan of action, women culture and sexuality, women in education, financial and health policies, women in our constitution and politics, women literature pre and post independence, her identity, her conflicts, women as productive labour etc.
