(SESSION 2018-2019)

DATE: 16.03.2019

VENUE: Auditorium, Rani Birla Girls College.

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: Students :20

On March 16, 2019, the Department of English organized an insightful invited lecture titled "The Men, The Women, and the Fight in 'Bravely Faught the Queen'". The esteemed speaker for this event was Ms. Sanjukta Das, Associate Professor in the Department of English at Lady Brabourne College, Kolkata.

The lecture took place in the college auditorium and was well-attended by both faculty members and students. Ms. Das provided a thorough analysis of the renowned play by Mahesh Dattani, focusing on the complex interactions between the male and female characters and the central conflicts presented in the play.

Her presentation engaged the audience with a detailed breakdown of the themes and character dynamics, enhancing the attendees' understanding and appreciation of Dattani's work. The session was both informative and thought-provoking, and it contributed significantly to the academic discourse on contemporary Indian theatre.

The event was well-received, with participants expressing their appreciation for the depth and clarity of Ms. Das's analysis.

REPORT OF THE EVENT

Report on Invited Lecture on The Role of Religion in Indian Politics.

(ACADEMIC SESSION 2018-19)

DATE: 27.03.2019

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 132

On March 27, 2019, the Department of Political Science at Rani Birla Girls' College hosted an invited lecture titled "The Role of Religion in Indian Politics." The lecture was delivered by the esteemed scholar Dr. Sobhan Lal Datta Gupta, who is the former SN Bannerjee Professor in the Department of Political Science at the University of Calcutta.

The event was a significant success, drawing considerable interest from students and faculty alike. Dr. Datta Gupta's presentation was noted for its depth and relevance, particularly given the contemporary issues surrounding the intersection of religion and politics in India. His insights provided a valuable perspective for the young audience, underscoring the importance of understanding these dynamics in today's political landscape. The session was attended by 123 students and 9 faculty members of the college.

Overall, the lecture proved to be an enlightening experience for attendees, highlighting the ongoing relevance of the topic and enriching the academic discourse within the college community.
